

Proposed Amendment to article 40 of the Articles of Association to be in line with the new law
Bumrungrad Hospital Public Company Limited

Purpose

In order for the Company's Articles of Association to be in line with the amended section 100 of the Public Company Act B.E. 2535 (1992) as appended below.

Section 100. One or more shareholders holding shares not less than 10 percent of the total number of shares sold may, by subscribing their names, request the Board of Directors to call an Extraordinary General Meeting at any time, but the reason for calling such meeting shall be clearly stated in such request. In this regard, the Board of Directors shall proceed to call a meeting of shareholders to be held within 45 days from the date the request is received from the shareholders.

Directors' opinion

The directors were of the opinion that the amendment to article 40 of the Articles of Association in order for it to be in line with the new law is appropriate.

Effect on shareholders

Any number of shareholders holding 10% of the total shares sold can request the Board of Directors to call an extraordinary shareholders meeting (EGM), while under the old law shareholders holding 20% of the total shares sold, or 25 shareholders holding 10% of the total shares sold can request the Board of Directors to call EGM, hence this increases flexibility.

Current version

Article 40 The Board of Directors shall summon a general meeting of shareholders within four months from the date of fiscal year end of the Company. All other general meetings are called "Extraordinary General Meetings."

The Board of Directors may summon Extraordinary General Meetings whenever they think fit.

Alternatively, shareholders holding shares not less than one-fifth of the total number of shares sold, or not less than 25 shareholders holding the aggregate shares of not less than one-tenth of the total number of shares sold may, by subscribing their names, request the Board of Directors to call an Extraordinary General Meeting at any time, but the reason for calling such meeting shall be clearly stated in such request. In this regard, the Board of Directors shall proceed to call a meeting of shareholders to be held within one month from the date the request is received from the shareholders.

New version

Article 40 The Board of Directors shall summon a general meeting of shareholders within four months from the date of fiscal year end of the Company, and all other general meetings are called "Extraordinary General Meetings." The Board of Directors may summon Extraordinary General Meetings whenever they think fit.

One or more shareholders holding shares not less than 10 percent of the total number of shares sold may, by subscribing their names, request the Board of Directors to call an Extraordinary General Meeting at any time, but the reason for calling such meeting shall be clearly stated in such request. Article 22 Directors of the Company shall be appointed by the shareholders' meeting pursuant to the following criteria and methods:

22.1 each shareholder has one vote for one share;

22.2 the election of directors may be either by voting for each individual director, or by voting for a group of directors, whichever way the shareholders' meeting deems appropriate, whereby for each resolution, each shareholder must exercise all of their votes for one individual director or for one group of directors, and votes by each shareholder may not be split between any directors or any groups of directors; and

22.3 the election passes with the majority of the votes, and if the number of votes is equal, the chairperson of the meeting has the final vote.

Article 23 At every annual general meeting of shareholders, one-third of the directors shall retire from office. If the number of directors is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third shall retire from office.

Directors to retire in the first and second year after the Company's registration shall be determined by ballots. In subsequent years, directors who have served longest in office shall retire.

Directors who retire according to this article are eligible for reelection.

Directors' remuneration

Article 39 Directors are entitled to remuneration from the Company in the form of gratuities, meeting allowances, rewards, bonuses, or any other forms of benefits as considered by the shareholders' meeting. The shareholders' meeting may fix the specific amount, or set forth rules to be complied with from time to time, or to be effective until further changes. In addition, directors are also entitled to a per diem and any fringe benefits according to the regulations of the Company.

The provision in the first paragraph shall not affect the right of the officer or employee of the Company who has been elected as a director to receive remuneration and benefits in their capacity as an officer or employee of the Company.

Chapter 5 General Meeting of the Shareholders

Shareholders' Meeting

Article 40 The Board of Directors shall arrange for a shareholders' meeting which is an annual ordinary general meeting of shareholders within 4 (four) months from the last day of the fiscal year of the Company. The Board of Directors may call an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders any time the Board considers it appropriate to do so.

Alternatively, shareholders holding no less than one-fifth of the total number of shares sold, or no less than 25 (twenty-five) shareholders holding no less than one-tenth of the total number of shares sold may submit their names in a request directing the Board of Directors to call an extraordinary general meeting at any time, but the reasons for calling such meeting shall be clearly stated in such request. In such case, the Board of Directors shall proceed to arrange a shareholders' meeting to be held within 1 (one) month from the date of receipt of such request from the shareholders.

Invitation letter

Article 41 In calling a shareholders' meeting, the Board of Directors shall prepare a written notice calling the meeting that states the place, date, time, and agenda of the meeting, and the matters to be proposed to the meeting with reasonable details, indicating clearly whether it is a matter proposed for information, for approval, or for consideration, as the case may be, including the opinions of the Board of Directors on the matters. Such notice shall be delivered to the shareholders and the Registrar for their information at least 7 (seven) days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice calling for the meeting shall also be published in a newspaper for 3 (three) consecutive days at least 3 (three) days prior to the date of the meeting.

At any shareholders' meeting, if one hour has passed from the time specified for the meeting and the number of shareholders attending the meeting does not constitute a quorum as required, and if such shareholders' meeting was called as a result of a request by the shareholders, such meeting shall be canceled. If such meeting was not called by a request of the shareholders, the meeting shall be called once again, and the notice calling such meeting shall be delivered to the shareholders no less than 7 (seven) days prior to the date of the meeting. At the subsequent meeting, a quorum is not required.

Chairman of the Meeting

Article 43 The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be the chairman of the shareholders' meeting. If the Chairman of the Board is not present at the meeting, or cannot perform his duty, and if there is a Vice-Chairman, the Vice-Chairman shall be the chairman of the meeting. If there is no Vice-Chairman, or if the Vice-Chairman cannot perform his duty, the shareholders present at the meeting shall elect one shareholder to be the chairman of the meeting.

In casting votes, each shareholder shall have votes equal to the number of shares held by him or her. One share entitles its holder to one vote.

Voting shall be done openly, unless at least 5 (five) shareholders request a secret vote and the meeting resolves accordingly. The method for the secret vote shall be as specified by the chairman of the meeting.
